

Lodging a submission under s 131(3) of the Electoral Act – non-Parliamentary Party

Completing this form:

- This form is for use by a non-parliamentary party applying for registration where the Australian Electoral Commission has issued a notice to the party under s 131(1) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (Electoral Act) that it is of the opinion it must refuse the application unless the party is prepared to vary its application.
- Further information about these processes is provided in the Party Registration Guide available at www.aec.gov.au.
- Information on this form is collected under the Electoral Act.

Name of Party

AUSTRALIA'S REPRESENTATIVES

Please enter the party name exactly as it appeared in your original application.

The Electoral Commission has advised us under s 131(1) of the Electoral Act that it is of the opinion it is required to refuse the application to register the party or change the party's details in the Register of Political Parties in its current form, but that we might be prepared to vary the application so that the Electoral Commission is not required to refuse it.

As an applicant we request the AEC under s 131(3) of the Electoral Act to consider:

- ✓ 1. the party's varied application as set out on the attached page(s);
[if you choose this option, you must provide the further evidence sought by the AEC in its notice issued to your party]

OR (please strike out 1. or 2.)

- ~~2. determine the party's application for registration in its current form.
[if you choose this option, you should expect your application to be refused]~~

This form must be made by the secretary of the party and nine supporting applicants who are members of the party (new party registration) or the secretary of the party and two supporting applicants who are members of the party (change to the Register of Political Parties application). The applicant/s must sign this form and provide their details as provided below and on the reverse of this page.

Secretary's details:

	Secretary's Name	Signature
1.	SANJEEV SABHLOK	 [REDACTED]
Street Address
[REDACTED]

Add any further information requested by the AEC in its notice to the party.

Further to the information provided in the earlier pages of this submission in response to the Notice under section 131 (1) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 issued to Australia's Representatives party on 6 August 2021 by the AEC, the party wishes to vary its application in the following manner:

- Australia's Representatives no longer wishes to register a logo as part of its application for registration.
